

LIFE OF A WATER DROP

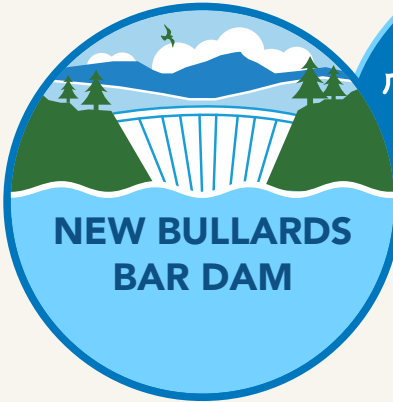

ON THE YUBA RIVER

New Bullards Bar stores nearly 1 MILLION acre-feet of water

Each year, approximately

112,000

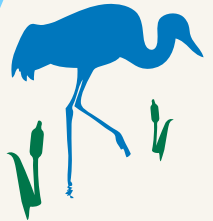

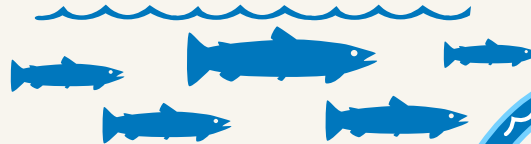

people recreate at New Bullards Bar Reservoir.

NEW BULLARDS BAR DAM

Gathering rain and snowmelt from over 1,357 SQUARE MILES of the Sierra Nevada mountain range, the Yuba River begins as three separate rivers; the NORTH YUBA, MIDDLE YUBA, and SOUTH YUBA RIVERS.

Habitat for fish and wildlife.

Rice fields provide bird and wildlife habitat.

Enough hydropower to supply power to more than 400,000 HOMES.

NEW COLGATE POWERHOUSE

NARROWS 1 AND 2 POWERHOUSES

Provides CARBON-FREE electricity.

260,000 ACRE-FEET of water to eight water districts, who in turn supply 60,000 ACRES of farmland with water.

80% of Yuba County's population relies on groundwater.

